Telegrams.

HAVAS

Madrid, Jan. 12—King Alfonso is slightly better.

Lisbon, 12—Telegrams from Zanzibar announce that the British Admiral has given notice to the Portuguese Governor of the Zambesi to withdraw the troops stationed by Serpa Pinto in certain parts of Machonaland and on the banks of the Chiré river and also in Frascara. The Portuguese Governor has asked for instructions from the Home Government before replying to the British ultimatum.

Rio Janeiro, Jan. 12.—The foreign Minister, Quintino Bocayuva starts on Thursday for Montevideo in the man of war "Riachuelo", as envoy extraordinary and plenipotentiary to the Argentine, Uruguayan and Paraguayan governments; he will be accompanied by three secretaries and by the Argentine Minister, Enrique B. Moreno.

Paris, Jan. 13.—Dom Pedro arrived at Pau last night from Lisbon.

Lisbon, Jan. 13th.—The news of the English ultimatum with reference to Africa has caused great excitement here. Stones were thrown at the British Consulate and the ringleaders of the riot were arrested. The Cabinet have presented their collective resignation. King Carlos has entrusted the construction of a new Ministry to Serpa Pimentel, and he is now conferring with Barjona Freitas.

GALVESTON.

Madrid, Jan. 11th (8 a.m.)—The King is better; he has taken a small quantity of broth. A special service for his recovery has been held in the private chapel of the palace. 2 p.m.—The bulletin announces that the King is quiet and that there are no indications that the malady will have a fatal termination.

Moscow, Jan. 11th.—Solotouchine, chief of the Secret Police, has been killed by a shot from the hand of a woman while making a raid on a Nihilist Club; the woman afterwards committed suicide.

Paris, Jan. 11th.—Telegrams from Madrid convey the intelligence that the King is suffering from tubercular meningitis.

Madrid, Jan. 12.—The latest bulletin says that the King's prostration continues but that he shows more animation. Large crowds surround the palace waiting for bulletins. All telegrams are subject to a censorship and several have been stopped as none are allowed to be transmitted unless with news in accordance with the official bulletins; this is done to prevent panic in the provinces but has had the effect of increasing the uneasiness of the public and giving rise to rumours of the King's death. The Government have telegraphed to the Provinces and Colonies recommending vigilance and giving orders to repress republican movements; different opinions exist as to the strength of the republican party. The Conservatives held a meeting in the house of Sr. Canovas del Castillo and resolved, in case of necessity, to assist the Government in the maintenance of order.

Paris, 12—To-day elections are being held in two of the departments to fill vacancies in the Chamber of Deputies caused by the invalidity of prior elections; the disqualified candidates are again presenting themselves in the same districts.

London, 12—The Marquis of Hartington, leader of the Liberal Unionists, eldest son of the Duke of Devonshire, is seriously ill; great anxiety exists and the Queen has telegraphed enquiries. The possibility of his death gives rise, in the present state of affairs, to wide conjectures in the political world.

Madrid, 13—At two o'clock this morning the King was better; he asked for food during the night and was brighter, talking and playing with his sisters; his pulse is stronger.

New York, Jan. 13.—A copy of the rough draft of the extradition treaty drawn up between Lord Salisbury and the North American Minister in London and to be submitted for the approval of the respective legislatures has been sent to the Governor-General of Canada.

St. Louis, Jan. 13.—Yesterday evening a cyclone passed over this city, unroofing houses, uprooting trees, destroying towers and levelling telegraph posts, besides other damage.

WEST COAST TELEGRAMS

Santiago, Jan. 13th.—The Council of State has approved the protocol signed by Señor Elias, the Peruvian Minister, and Señor Castellon, by which Chile forgives the Peruvian debts of 1869, 1870 and 1871. In exchange, Peru binds herself to obtain the compliance of the bondholders with articles 4, 7 and 8 of the treaty of Ancon, besides other concessions.

Peru, 13—The Government has published a decree fixing the Presidential elections for the 12th prox.

THE BUDGET.

The Argentine Budget for the current year embraces an ordinary expenditure of $51,709,624, and an extraordinary expenditure of $16,172,260, making a total of $67,881,884. At a first glance this would appear to be the heaviest budget ever voted by Congress, but in reality the figures, reduced to gold value, show that forced currency has artificially inflated both the revenue and the expenditure of the National Executive; for if we calculate the paper dollar at a discount of 50 o/o, the expenditure voted for 1890, would not exceed 34 million gold dollars. If we look back to the national budget of 1887, when gold was at an average premium of 40 o/o, we see that the expenditure of that year, say $47,000,000 in paper, amounted to 33½ million gold dollars, half a million less than the expenditure voted for 1890. The expenditure of the Government, therefore, has remained more or less stationary, and such is the levelling force of forced currency that the inflated paper values of to-day are about the same as those of 1885, when greenbacks were convertible over the counter. In the same way we see that the amount of currency which to-day boasts in paper value a circulation of no less than 160 millions is in reality cut down by depreciation to less than eighty millions, the amount of paper issue in 1885. We have endeavored to rush ahead in every direction, but forced currency has hurled us back to our old position of four years ago, and unless we mend our ways, we shall yet see forced currency throw us back ten years.

A great deal of Argentine progress today is in paper, and it needs but little study to convince us that two-thirds of our vaunted progress is the sham that draws a veil over the fifty per cent. discount that must be allowed in all actual calculations. We have seen how the expenditure for 1890 is thirty-four millions gold, rather less; now let us glance at the Ways and Means of the current year. The ordinary revenue is calculated at 56,562,500 dollars, the extraordinary at 17,807,500 dollars, making a total of 74,370,000 dollars, a formidable looking amount that shrinks to 37,185,000 dollars gold when reduced to its intrinsic value. The magnitude of the difference will be immediately grasped in the following table of comparative values of the respective figures:—

	In gold.	In paper.
	Dollars.	Dollars.
Expenditure... ...	34,000,000	67,880,000
Ways and Means	37,185,000	74,370,000
Total...	71,185,000	142,250,000

For the sake of simplicity in all these calculations we have divided the paper values by two to get at the gold value, although we much fear that at the rate affairs are marching, the divisor in all these calculations will soon range between 2.50 and three. A process of this kind is salutary, as it places before one's eyes the true position of affairs; people are only too prone to look at mammoth figures of budgets, stock quotations, land values, etc., as the eloquent expression of our wonderful progress. What a pity that so much of this growth should be dwarfed by forced currency progress.

Let us get reconciled to the melancholy fact that in many things we are not only not advancing, but we are actually going backwards, and much as this process of retrogression is to be applauded in the taxation of the people and the expenditure of the Government, it is to be deplored in its baneful influence in many other branches of national existence. The Government is one of the chief losers by forced currency, yet it has refrained with much prudence and wisdom from increasing taxes on the people and keeps the national expenditure within reasonable limits. Still the day may not be distant when in the throes of a crisis the very paper figures of revenue will begin to fall off with the impoverishment and enforced retrenchment in the consumption of the people: then the government will be obliged to increase taxation to make both ends meet and cut down expenditure wholesale as in the days of the Avellaneda crisis. We have not approached such eventualities as yet, but a timely warning is not out of season, as the government is in a position to do much to retrieve the situation and save the state from the financial difficulties that are crowding round the market in such threatening confusion. President Juarez has still three years before him and in that period he can place the country again on the broad foundations of conversion, and we doubt not that it is his chief ambition to hand over the reins of government to his successor in the midst of peace and prosperity with paper at par.

ARGENTINE AFFAIRS IN LOMBARD STREET.

London, 14th Dec. 1889.

It is useless for me to make any comments on the state of the London market, as the telegraph has already informed you of it. We now have a lull in the issue of Industrial Companies; the number has been very great, and has been quite an innovation in this conservative city.

The Breweries of the United States have been bought up one by one; then consolidated, and formed into a company in London. All these—and other Industrial Companies—are made to show from 10o/o to 20o/o—anything less would not be accepted by the English community; as it is the speculative element that governs the investor! Wherever debentures are issued they are completely ignored by the speculative public—who prefer ordinary shares with hopes of corresponding large dividends.

Trust Companies also have been the order of the day, and many have been launched successfully: it would seem, however, as though there is an end to the forming of any new companies for the present.

The Buenos Aires Water and Drainage Company was formed, not very successfully it is true; as the public were very suspicious of anything referring to the Waterworks of Buenos Aires; but the name Baring Bros., and a powerful syndicate of Bankers (The most prominent in London) carried the thing through.

The market is now disturbed by the constant attacks made by your press against the Law authorizing the lease, and also the recommendations to the people not to pay the tax. Surely the people of Buenos Aires cannot expect to be exempt from payments such as are made by the inhabitants of every important city in the world?

I have before me now the Tax-bill for water of a house in the Lambeth parish of the City of London, which is 8 o/o on its gross rental. I have gone carefully over the tariff made by the contractors of the Obras de Salubridad of Buenos Aires, and find it is lower than that of the City of London, notwithstanding the higher cost of living in Buenos Aires.

All this fuss may be political, or it may be an intent to do good, but if the people are to be guided by passions and not by facts, it is useless for anyone to try and convince them. Even with the rates fixed at $6 average per house—for three services—which is lower than the City of London basis—a hue and cry is made against the tax in Buenos Aires! I am sorry to see this, as it is a slur against the civilization and good sense of the inhabitants of Buenos Aires that such things are permitted and indulged in; and instead of acting unitedly and trying to make it the greatest metropolis in South America, they are opposing its progress.

No Company was ever launched under a more favorable basis for the country than the Obras de Salubridad of Buenos Aires, and nothing but the immense influence of Baring Brothers in conjunction with a formidable syndicate, could have carried it through.

I now notice it is proposed to pay rates in paper. Certainly the Company cannot agree to this, as it is against both the law and the contract, and it is a direct violation of good faith. Had the Government given a guarantee to the Company that a certain rate of interest should be paid on the capital employed, then I could understand that the Company would be indifferent as to what the tax might be; but the Government did not guarantee, and the Company was formed and launched to the public on the good faith of the nation.

If the influential journals of Buenos Ayres only took the trouble to study the question, they would see they are doing great harm to the city and to the public by catering to the ignorance of those who are fomenting this opposition, without any idea or concern as to what it may involve.

I also see in the papers of this morning that the Government has suspended the guarantee of the East Argentine Railway; it seems as though everything combines to injure the name of the Argentine. Surely there is to be found some one to act, and who is capable of mediating in this matter.

If the Company is wrong, disinterested engineers would say so; but if it is right, disinterested engineers should support it. We would thus avoid a scandal in London which injures every one—prevents people from putting their money in Argentine securities, and at the same time destroys their faith in the Argentines—which is most distressing to those having the interest of the country at heart.

Messrs. Morgans—who launched the Argentine Great Western Railway—have done more than any one other firm to bring things to a successful issue, and have spent enormous sums with that object. Complaints were made that the roads were in bad condition, but it must be remembered that the road was in this state when bought from the Government—(surely Messrs. Morgans cannot be blamed for this)—and as quickly as the necessary rolling-stock could be obtained, it was bought and sent out.

All such assertions of the Press are most detrimental, and prevent the investing classes from putting their money into Argentine stocks and shares. For instance, a combination was being formed in London to buy millions of Cedulas, but these attacks against the Obras de Salubridad, and the suspension of the East Argentine Railway guarantee have so frightened the people that the idea has been abandoned.

Argentines must think very carefully over the situation. Their country is destined to be second only to the United States, in the New World: greatness is at their doors, and nothing but their own folly will drive it from them. Good faith in business transactions is as incumbent upon a nation as upon an individual, and bitterly will they rue the day when the purse strings of England and the Continent are closed against them!

Interest is still very high, and money difficult, except against undoubted security.

It is rumoured that the advance against the 41 millions Government Bonds, which was being arranged for by Messrs. Baring Bros., has fallen through; and it is much to be regretted, should such be the case.

I am pleased to see that immigration is going on so well, and I notice by your columns that 28,000 persons arrived in one month. These are splendid figures, and it is a bright lining to the cloud that is hanging over Argentine finance. People are becoming more and more interested in Argentine affairs, and it needs only a little more encouragement (which can be given by the Government acting more quietly) in order that people may be induced to buy our Cedulas and paper bonds, which (in the opinion of those who know best) pay better dividends than gold bonds.

There is a good deal of talk about new guarantees for railways being offered in this market, but if there is a clause in the concession whereby the work must be done within a year, nine-tenths of these concessions will fall to the ground, as there is absolutely no money at command for industrial undertakings in the Argentine Republic.

CURRENT TOPICS.

London, Dec. 7.

The acquittal of Moussa Bey by the Special Commission appointed by the Sultan at Constantinople has surprised nobody, as it was understood all along that the trial was a mere juggle of the Sublime Porte. The infamous scoundrel, one of the most notorious of Kurd fanatics, is accused of a series of atrocities upon Armenian Christians, and when the outcry was such that the Sultan could no longer refuse to listen he ordered Moussa Bey to be brought to trial. The criminal, however, was lodged in one of the Sultan's palaces, and treated with every mark of respect. The judges had, doubtless, been instructed what sentence they were to give, and so the comedy ends precisely as was expected.

Dom Pedro is hourly looked for at Lisbon, and will propably rest there a few days on his way to Austria, where he has determined to spend the rest of his days in the castle belonging to Archduke John. It will be remembered that this archduke solemnly begged the Emperor Francis Joseph to erase his name from the family record, as he had no desire to live in courtatmosphere any longer. The Emperor acceded to his request, and decreed that the late Archduke is to be known henceforward as Mr. Johns. As for Dom Pedro, some people think that he had arranged the revolution with the Cabinet, and in reality abdicated, like his father before him. At all events he will now command more sympathy, as everybody will say that he lost his crown by freeing his slaves.

Those persons who preserve a strong interest in British politics will read with satisfaction or the reverse the speeches delivered at Manchester and Edinburgh by Mr. Gladstone and the Irish Secretary. Meantime it is thought that on the re-assembling of Parliament a bill will be proposed by Government to extend the Ashbourne Act and enable tenants in Ireland to their farms.

The Silver question promises to re open troubles in the U. States. Unless the Americans go in for a silver currency altogether by demonetizing gold (as the Dutch did in 1855) or by prohibiting the use of paper-money for less than 5 dollars, I do not see what they gain by coining so much silver. It seems that bi-metallism makes no progress in Europe, and Jonathan will find it hard to dispose of his surplus stock of silver.

You will have read with pleasure the news of Stanley's safe arrival at Zanzibar. Poor Emin Pasha is not expected to live, having accidentally walked through the window of the dining-room at Bagamoyo, he is so short-sighted.

Among other events is the donation of £250,000 by Sir Cecil Guinness for housing the poor of London and Dublin. He has, somewhat capriciously, given only £50,000 to his native city, where his enormous fortune was made. Let us hope the other millionaires will imitate his example by doing something for the poor. It is supposed that he will be made a peer.

AN ARGENTINE'S IMPRESSIONS OF SPAIN.

Our distinguished colleague, Dr. Davila, of the Prensa, is now travelling in Spain, and the impressions he gathers from his first visit to Barcelona—the gem of Spanish cities—and Sabadell, a minor and adjacent jewel, are so fresh and so interesting that we gladly make room for a few extracts from his letters. The wandering editor is struck with the quaintness of some customs, and his judgment takes in at a glance the restrictions which have brought down the once immense trade of Spain to its present level. There are other considerations which impel us to collect Dr. Davila's impressions. The Argentine Republic, for many a year to come, must be viewed as an offshoot of Spain, and the Argentine is therefore better qualified than others to appreciate the qualities and customs, the present and future, of a country to which he is still attached by the fragments of that chain which the thirst for independence shattered eighty years ago. If that chain had not been broken, perhaps Buenos Ayres would be a Sabadell to-day.

We particularly recommend to our readers Dr. Davila's description of Sabadell. The sweet, poetic ring of the name contrasts strangely with the din of its engines. Our colleague has fallen on a veritable Utopia, hidden from view by the majestic Barcelona, and flourishing in blissful solitude like the modest violet. There is no Bolsa in Sabadell. No speculation is allowed. Neither do we find any mention of a Municipality nor of theatres, nor of Cafes de Paris. The town is one vast manufactory, turning out enough virtue to rouse the wonder and excite the admiration of a wicked world. No crime has been committed in the place for two years. We should strongly advise the Government to let loose in the place some of its emigration agents.

Dr. Davila says:—

"Barcelona is a most interesting city and deserves the closest attention of the visitor, but I think that it will be necessary for me to visit every town in Spain before I feel qualified to speak of it. This Queen of Cataluña has very powerful elements of progress which pulsate in her daily movement, in her commercial activity. It is not surprising, in a new country, to see cities improvised in a few years, but what is wonderful is to see an old city of 20 centuries, by dint of its own strength, and without assistance, renew itself. Such has been the case with Barcelona. It is building its port at considerable cost; it is enlarging itself, and its suburbs present a new city: it is widening its old streets, and its picturesque Ramblas recall the Boulevards of Paris, with this difference, that there is only a central walk 8 to 10 metres wide. Barcelona has magnificent theatres, numerous cafes that would grace any city, splendid shops, well-paved and what is more well kept streets. In a word, Barcelona displays every charm of prosperity . . . . When I think of the weary red-tape formalities that had to be fulfilled ere Barcelona could undertake any of the improvements which to-day embellish it, I ask: what would Barcelona be had it a central Government in it, like London, Paris, Berlin, or Vienna, or even a local Government? I have not the least doubt that the organic political institutions of Spain fetter the general development and progress of the kingdom. Nevertheless Barcelona advances. Is it not a civilized centre worthy of study? But I must speak of Sabadell.

It lies at one hour and a half's distance from Barcelona, and has 25,000 inhabitants. It is a manufacturing town, the first in Cataluña and therefore the first in Spain. It would be impossible for me to describe the manufactures. The subject is altogether too vast, but what most struck me in Sabadell was the quaint peculiarity of the place. Its customs, its character, its economic power, its industrial capacity are unique and rouse the admiration of the visitor. Let the reader recall the virtues of a patriarchal period linked with an age of steam-power, the sentiments of democracy side by side with the haughtiness of the Catalan spirit, and he will form some idea of Sabadell. There you find a unity and tolerance that charm you; a morality, public and private, that would excite the envy of the civilized world; a sincerity that is quite unknown in the modern forms of society; an equality genuine and positive, that responds to the democratic ideal; a consciousness of individual worth, a zeal for the interests of all, and perfect security for the rights of each inhabitant that the austerest republicans often desired to imprint energy and virility on nations. The manufacturers pursue the even tenor of their way in fraternal harmony in spite of commercial rivalry. They hide not from one another their respective systems of fabrication, nor the improvements they devise. All contribute to the glory of Sabadell. They never dream of clandestine imitation, and all appear to be united in the bonds of a sincere friendship. I heard one manufacturer frankly acknowledge the superiority of his neighbors' prints. No one ever oversteps the limits of his own worth. It is two years since the last crime was committed in Sabadell. There you have the fruits of good faith and honesty.

Sabadell is a piece of monarchy, and yet never have I seen more democratic habits than in that manufacturing centre.

The most pleasing harmony, without any attempt at familiarity, exists between employer and employed. The workingman has his club. There are no poor in Sabadell. Neither are the people rich. Any fraud, or even a breach of etiquette, would create a storm of indignation and astonishment.....In most of the factories I visited I found heaps of Argentine wool, all brought over from Belgium and France? Why do we not send our wool direct to Barcelona? The Governments of both countries are to blame. They make a few ponchos in Sabadell for the River Plate. They make a little out of much, instead of much out of little. In my opinion, the customs legislation and the economic regime of Spain oppress industry.

Imagine to yourself an engine of 1,000 horse-power producing 10 horse-power, and you will form an idea of the industrial capacity of Sabadell.

TIGRE HOTEL

The breakfast announced to take place in the new "Tigre Hotel", to try the cook", came off on Sunday, and very many people were there. The special train left the Central Station at 9.40 a.m. and a small steamer at the Tigre conveyed the party to the Hotel. As the tables were laid, and the cook in all his glory was ready to give the guests a proof of his skill, all sat down to a superb breakfast. Amongst the gentlemen present were Messrs. Alberto Casares, Dr. L. T. Lopez, Epifanio Zavalia, Ricardo Fernandez, Dr. Virgilio M. Tedin, Emilio Mitre y Vedia, Dr. Antonio Piñero, Mr. Brown, Mallmann, Dr. Araujo Muñoz, Manuel Dolls, Dr. Julian del Campo, Dr. Saenz Rosa, Carlos Z. Castro, Vicente Casares, Señor Achaval, Frias, Dr. Andres Ugarriza, Santiago Calsadilla, Dr. Cantillo, Mr. Bouwer, Wilson, Tomas Le Breton, Adolfo Pueyrredon, Mr. Murray, Dr. Silveiro Dominguez, Smith, Ribeiro, Senor Mayer, Dr. Mozquita, L. Coquet, Lawson, Dr. Del Valle, Frederkind, Gramajo, Adolfo Bullrich (hijo) and Adrian Penard.

When the Champagne was uncorked Dr. Tedin made a speech and was followed by Mr Delfor del Valle. Then came most apposite toasts from Dr. Enciso, Mr. Calzadilla, Dr. Muñoz and Mr. Murray. Mr. Brown, the general manager of the Northern Railway promised an irreproachable service of trains. Mr. Portela, with a well-turned speech, closed the toasting.

Families soon began to pour in, eager to see the new hotel, and a most enjoyable evening followed, with piano, song recitations and a band of music, and even dancing. When the proceedings had to be wound up, all withdrew with the conviction that the new Tigre Hotel is as unrivalled as the skill of the cook.

A short description of the Hotel will not be amiss. As our readers are no doubt aware, the Tigre Hotel belongs to a company of 11 gentlemen, namely: Emilio Mitre y Vedia, Portela, Gonzalez and Co., Enrique de Vedia, Ricardo Fernandez, Jose Antonio Ojea, Mariano Benitez, L. Garcia, German da Ponte-Ribeiro, J. Pueyrredon, A. F. Piñero, and E. Picazo. These gentlemen bought the lands from Mr. Ramon Oliveira Cesar, on the bank of the Lujan. No situation could be more picturesque, and the distance from the railway station can be covered in 10 minutes. The foundation of the building was laid in December 1888, but owing to the heavy rains and floods, the works had to be suspended. Now the building, as stately and sumptuous as a palace, is finished. Its shapely tower attracts attention from afar, and its appearance is as picturesque as its surroundings. It covers 2000 square metres, and its facade is a piece of monumental architecture. It is three storeys high, and in front there is a delightful terrace with seats beneath the shade, and even tables at which you can have your meals if you feel so inclined; not that the dining-room is small, for it can easily hold 200 people with the sharpest appetites. And what a dining-room! A genius must have been at work getting it up. The least detail in its adornment excites wonder and admiration.

To the right of the first story is the ladies' saloon with its pompadour curtains, its Parisian chairs, its immense mirrors, its piano and its inviting "chaises longues." Flanking this saloon is the ladies' writing-room with every imaginable convenience for writing. Then follow four private dining-rooms.

To the left lie the manager's office, the billiard-room with its four billiard tables and its classical seats; and then you find the barber's room, a bath room, and finally the cool sanctum and laboratory of the distinguished mortal entrusted with the culinary business of the establishment.

In the second and third stories there are one hundred rooms, furnished with the greatest taste, and there are besides in these two stories ten suites for families.

Add to all that the tower, from which you have a splendid view, Mr. Ribeiro's tramway, and the little steamer awaiting the pleasure of the lucky mortals in the hotel, and a fair idea may be formed of this new Tigre Hotel, whose flag gracefully waving in the pleasant river breeze bears the inspiriting inscription "En Avant."

As there could be no better way of spending the summer months, the hotel is certain to prove a splendid success.

In conclusion we may add that on Feb. 2nd the Company are going to sell off by auction 32,000 square yards in the vicinity of the hotel. Dr. Wilde's quinta is alongside; and some time ago Mr. Hume purchased 4,000 square yards at ten dollars per yard in the same neighborhood.

LATEST FROM CORRIENTES.

Corrientes, 1st January 1890

To the Editor of the STANDARD,
Buenos Ayres.

Dear Sir,—

Just a few lines to keep you posted up with news from this much neglected province.

On the 25th ult. Don Antonio J. Ruiz, our new Governor, took possession of his post, selecting as his Ministers Drs. Reyna and Martinez.

The retiring Governor Dr. Vidal, during his term of office, has done a great deal for the province, and it is to be hoped that his successor will follow in his footsteps.

You will doubtless be surprised to hear that we are looking forward to having gas here very shortly. The Government has already sanctioned the proposed scheme, which has passed the Deputies and is at present before the Senate. Mr. Viner Clarke, the representative of the Company here, expects to leave for England in a few days time to superintend personally the shipment of the necessary plant.

The paving works are still being pushed forward briskly by Messrs. Thompson, Martin & Co., and the rails for the tramway have already been laid through the principal streets by Colonel La Cueva.

A new bank has just been opened by Dr Llambi Campbell under the name of the Banco Territorial, and it is to be hoped that this will in some measure relieve the present situation, as paper money has been terribly scarce here lately.

The Parana rose tremendously a fortnight ago, overflowing its banks and the Chaco side. This was quite unexpected after the great "creciente" last year; the next important rise being foretold for the year 1898, as it is a remarkable fact that each serious overflow has taken place after a period of 10 years.

Wishing you a very happy "New Year," believe me, dear sir,

Yours very truly,
Optimist.

RIVER PLATE AFFAIRS IN LONDON

(From the S. A. Journal)

A financial contemporary which has been prophesying the financial collapse in the Argentine Republic for many months, makes an attempt to belittle the splendid results obtained by the London and River Plate Bank and its younger sister institution, the English Bank of the River Plate by complaining that the large reserve fund which is being accumulated by both banks is not invested in securities, but is being employed in the general business of the banks. I do not see any cause for finding fault with the position of either bank. The London and River Plate Bank has now been in existence 27 years, and having earned during the financial year ended September 30th (including £43,239 carried forward) £383,901 with a paid up capital of £600,000 distributes a dividend of 15 per cent., adds £100,000 to the reserve fund, raising it to £600,000, and carries £150,000 to capital account, thus raising the paid up capital to £750,000. The younger institution has earned £247,850 during the year and after carrying £100,000 to reserve, thereby raising the latter to £350,000, pays a dividend of 10 per cent. per annum. Under such exceptionally favourable circumstances, a bank is assuredly justified in investing its surplus funds in good bills of exchange, many of which, there is reason to think, could at a moment's notice be converted into cash. The shareholders of both banks are, indeed, to be congratulated upon the able management which has obtained such excellent results.

It is really much to be regretted that the gold premium in Buenos Aires will not settle down on a steady basis, as it disturbs business on the other side in a considerable measure. There is no news yet of a settlement about the loan of five million sterling which Dr. Pellegrini had negotiated, but I hear that Dr. Plaza, a former Argentine Minister of Finance, who, having spent a considerable time in Europe, was on the point of returning to Buenos Aires, has just been requested officially from headquarters not to leave yet, presumably in order that he should take charge of some negotiations relating to the financial position. Mr. John Baring also is just leaving these shores bound for the River Plate, but whether his object is to instruct the Argentines in the mysteries of finance, or whether his visit is connected with the scheme of State railways in Uruguay, or whether, as some will have it, he is merely travelling on pleasure bound, I should not like to say. Perhaps he is going with all three objects in view. As to the gold premium, I may say that the concensus of opinion of some of the most enlightened financiers connected with Argentina on this side points to as persistent a fall of the premium during next year as we have had an advance in the present year. There is no doubt there will be a considerable falling off in Argentine imports and a large increase in the exports. The further advance in the price of wool also will work in favor of the Argentine producers, and of the country generally. Under these circumstances, investments in sound Argentine securities are much to be commended, and I strongly urge investors not to be frightened out of their holdings by the vaporing of hostile and unscrupulous critics.

Railway Items.

According to a telegram, which will be found in an other column, the Paraguayan Government has signed the contract for the railway proposed by General Osborne to the Chaco and, we believe, to the Bolivian frontier. The concession now belongs to the Paraguayan Land Company, through whose lands the line will pass. This gives very great value to those lands.

It will soon be impossible, at least dangerous, to cross from the Government-House or Bolsa to the Plaza Victoria, owing to the agglomeration of tramways. There appear to be only two sidings and as every tram passes round the Plaza an idea may be formed of the volums of traffic. The Lord Mayor should adopt some measures to solve the question.

The Inspector-General has approved the plans presented by the contractors of the Villa Mercedes and Rioja Railway for that part of the line stretching from Villa Mercedes to a junction with the Andine Railway.

The North East Argentine Railway Works are being pushed forward with all the activity that the contractors and their 5,000 men are capable of. Mr. Clark has now asked Government for leave to open another section of 25 kilometres to traffic.

The popular committee formed to collect subscriptions for the purchase of the Western Railway are not losing sight of the object in view. We believe that a very considerable amount has been already collected. The shares are 100 dol. the first call being 10 dol. A meeting was announced to take place last night.

The Attorney-General has refused to allow the Pacific Railway to expropriate a piece of land belonging to Mr. A. Oostendorp.

The kilometrage of the Central Argentine in November was 2,796,548; and the net earnings $241,430. The working expenses were $185,316.

The kilometrage of the Oeste Santafecino last month was 229,770.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

The Clerk of the weather harked back (or forward) into winter yesterday, and umbrellas and waterproofs were in demand. (Numbers of the former were expropriated on the plea of public utility.) The wet cool weather is splendid from a health point of view.

We regret to announce the death of our old friend, Don Francisco Olivero, who expired in Valencia last week. Deceased was the "decano" cigar-maker of the Plate, where, by patient, honest industry he amassed a large fortune. The magnificent premises at the corner of San Martin and the Plaza Victoria were built by Mr. Olivero out of the hard earnings derived from the sale of his black paper cigars. Forty years ago everyone in Buenos Ayres smoked Olivero's black paper cigars; to-day the public smoke "colorados". For many years we printed the labels (by the million) for his packets of paper cigars in the old STANDARD Office in Calle Defensa, and afterwards in Calle Belgrano. Deceased was immensely esteemed in this market, where he had hosts of friends who will lament his demise.

We learn with great pleasure that Mr. William F. Dansey, so well known and appreciated in railway circles, has been appointed H. M. Vice Consul for Parana and Entre Rios.

Dr. Luis V. Varela has sent round invitations with a view of organising a popular reception and ovation to Dr. Quintin Bocayuva, Brazilian Minister of Foreign Affairs, who is expected here after the signing of the Misiones treaty in Montevideo. We cordially endorse Dr. L. V. Varela's idea and we have no doubt that the whole population will turn out to greet the distinguished visitor and give éclat to whatever ovation or programme the committee organised by Dr. Varela may think fit to carry out for the occasion. Of all Brazilian statesmen, Minister Bocayuva is the most popular among Argentines, who, one and all, will rise to welcome him to those shores as the bearer of peace and friendship between Argentina and Brazil.

President Juarez will leave for Cordoba to morrow and will remain there a month Our Brazilian visitor, Dr. Bocayuva, will go to Cordoba to pay his respects to the Chief Magistrate.

An attempted big smuggle of gloves, lace and silk was nipped in the bud in the Custom House last week by the eagle eye of the Administrator. The offending party, who is an old hand at contraband work, declared the goods to be "fideos."

An evening colleague reports that an Italian in Calle Chile has gone raving mad through reading all the nonsense in the papers about yellow fever and influenza. The poor devil was found in his room trying to fly from one end of it to the other!

There were a couple of fires in town on Sunday, but quite second-chop affairs, the damage done not reaching 2,000 nats.

Although owing to Beloqui and Mardura being on the sick list, there was a poor programme at the Fronton Nacional on Sunday, the attendance was fairly large. Of the two games played, the first between Irun and Uranga v. Marinero and Pasiego was the best contested, the former eventually only winning after a wearing struggle by four aces. Irun was not in his best form, but his partner supplied the deficiency by playing in the most brilliant manner, Pasiego being completely fagged out towards the end, and unable to pass Iruk inside. Marinero did good work and played unusually steadily for him. The second match was Baltasar and Portal v. Chiquito de Eibar and Elicegui, the two great rivals to play outside. The struggle was stiff up to the 36th ace after which Elicegui, completely worn out, gave up playing and let Baltasar win by 11 aces. The

Dr. J. Collis Browne's CHLORODYNE.

THE ORIGINAL AND ONLY GENUINE

Advice to Invalids.—If you wish to obtain quiet refreshing sleep, free from headache, relief from pain and and anguish, to calm and assuage the weary achings of protracted disease, invigorate the nervous media and regulate the circulating systems of the body, you will provide yourself with that marvellous remedy discovered by D. J. Collis Brown, (late Army Medical Staff), to which he gave the name of CHLORODYNE, and which is admitted by the profession to be the most wonderful and valuable remedy ever discovered.

CHLORODYNE is the best remedy known for Coughs, Consumption, Bronchitis, Asthma.

CHLORODYNE acts like a charm in Diarrhœa, and is the only specific in Cholera and Dysentery.

CHLORODYNE effectually cuts short all attacks of Epilepsy, Hysteria, Palpitation, and Spasms.

CHLORODYNE is the only palliative in Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Gout, Cancer, Toothache, Meningitis, &c.

From Symes & Co., Pharmaceutical Chemists, Medical Hall, Simla, January 5 1880. To J. T. Davenport, Esq., 33, Great Russel Street, Bloomsbury, London. Dear Sir,—We embrace this opportunity of congratulating you upon the widespread reputation this justly esteemed medicine, Dr. J. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne, has earned for itself, not only in Hindostan; but all over the East. As a remedy for general utility, we must question whether a better is imported into the country, and we shall be glad to hear of its finding a place in every Anglo-Indian home. The other brands, we are so sorry to say, are now relegated to the native bazaars, and, judging from their sale, we fancy their sojourn there will be but evanescent. We could multiply instances "ad infinitum" of the extraordinary efficacy of Dr. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne in Diarrhœa and Dysentery, Spasms, Cramps, Neuralgia, the Vomiting of Pregnancy, and as a general sedative that have occurred under our personal observation during many years. In Choleraic Diarrhœa, and even in the more terrible forms of Cholera itself, we have witnessed its surprisingly controlling power. We have never used any other form of this medicine than Collis Browne's from a firm Conviction that it is decidedly the best, and also from a sense of duty we owe to the profession and the public, as we are of opinion that the substitution of any other than Collis Browne's is a deliberate Breach of Faith on the part of the Chemist to prescribe and Patient alike. We are, Sir, faithfully yours, Symes and Co., Members of the Pharm. Society of Great Britain. To the Excellency the Viceroy's Chemists.

Caution.—Vice-Chancellor Sir W. Page Wood stated that Dr. J. Collis Browne, was, unfortunately, the inventor of Chlorodine; that the story of the defendant Freeman was deliberately untrue, which he regretted to say, had been sworn to.—See "The Times," July 13, 1864.

Sold in bottles at 1s. 1 1|2d., 2s.9d., 4s. 6d., and 11s. each. None is genuine without the words "Dr. J. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne" on the Government stamp. Overwhelming medical testimony accompanies each bottle.

Caution.—Beware of Piracy and Imitations.

There was a rather better feeling in the market to-day, owing to the news of the National Bank having concluded arrangements with Messrs. Cahen and Co. for a large advance on their stocks, which will enable the bank to at once commence drawing exchange. The rates at once advanced in the open market, and are quoted as follows :—

On France, 5.03
On Antwerp, 5.04
On London, 47½
On Berlin, 4.7-4.8
Discounts, trade "pagarés," 10 per cent.

It was announced to-day that the City Improvement Works Company has at last arranged with the Government for the monthly taxes to be collected on the houses in the city. The lowest is $1,50 per month and the highest $12 50 gold. As appears by advices received yesterday from London, the charges there for the same services are much higher.

Mr. Casey, who arrived up from Montevideo, was welcomed on 'Change. He reports the market down there improved somewhat.

The s.s. Galileo brings one hundred thousand pounds sterling in gold for the London and River Plate Bank. She also brings another one hundred thousand pounds sterling in gold, we suppose for the Government.

We notice that the Mortgage Bank in La Plata has begun foreclosing, and amongst the properties advertised for auction is a fine estancia on the Sauce Grande, near Bahia Blanca ; mortgage 29,000 Nats.

Mr. Brandt, manager of the great hotel in Montevideo belonging to the Obras Company, has arrived out from Europe.

In the produce markets this morning there was nothing doing, owing to the weather.

Advices from Montevideo announce great improvement, stocks all rallying and recovering former quotations. Obras are quoted at 37½ and National Bank Shares at 105.

The s.s. G. B. Lavarello left Genoa on the 12th inst. for the Plate with 1,000 immigrants.

The s.s. Rosario arrived in Genoa same day from the Plate ; all well aboard.

The principal features of business at the second hour was a stiffening tendency in gold and more buoyancy in National Bank shares which were in demand for cash at 220 and for 25th at 219. The demand for latter date is to prevent the shares going into liquidation. The gold premium closed stiff at 130.60 for to-morrow but was rather easier on time. Constructors changed hands at 81 for cash and 87.50 end February. Catalinas were weaker at 49 and Flores Constructors at 82. A few Agricola and Comercial shares changed hands at 57 o/o discount.

The following is a summary of operations effected this evening at the second ring :—

Another big syndicate is spoken of in London to purchase one of the finest railway undertakings in the Argentine Republic. We refer to the purchase of what was formerly known as the Western Railway and to day goes by the name of Provincial Railways of the Buenos Ayres Government. It was expected that the Great Southern Railway Company would avail of this splendid opportunity of buying the Western line. It is, however, announced that a syndicate has been formed in London and that at one of the meetings of its members Lord Revelstoke volunteered to subscribe half the capital for the purchase of the line. The Western Railway is valued at 50 million dollars.

The Platense Company in spite of not having received any news from Asuncion relative to the closing of the port and sanitary observation imposed on vessels coming from Buenos Ayres, have resolved to despatch the s.s Rio Parana for Paraguay stopping at all the ordinary places. This steamship will start from Campana to-morrow (Tuesday) in the evening ; all intending passengers should start from the Central Station by the 2.55 p.m. train.

Lieut. Col. Rohde is in the field with a capital project for establishing telegraph communication between Patagones, along the Atlantic Coast, and the Straits of Magellan, Lemaire Straits, Staten Island and San J. an del Salvamento.

Mr. E. Casares, in behalf of the Campana Port and Moles Company, has applied for authority to build a mole 300 metres in length on the Parana.

Mr Biaña's project to start fisheries in Mar del Plata has been very favorably reported on by the Port Captain.

The s.s Solombria has received 1835t frozen wethers from the Nelson meat freezing establishment at San Nicolas for Liverpool.

An extraordinary accusation is made against the captain of a sailing vessel at present anchored in the port of Rosario. This excamp lary officer is accused in the less than opening the cases of Cargo on the voyage, appropriating part of the contents, and selling the latter on his arrival to accomplices. He was ably assisted by his crew.

In maize exports we note the following : —

Per s.s. Rubens 5,863 bags for Liverpool account of E Tornquist and Co.

Per s.s. Rubens 2,087 bags for Antwerp account of E. Tornquist and Co.

Per Italian barque Riviere 8,576 bags for orders account of Bunge and Born.

Per Italian barque Emilio M. 10,520 bags for orders account of Bunge and Born.

Per s.s. Petropolis 4,000 bags for Hamburg and a further lot in San Nicolas.

The Argentine Insurance Company "La Estrella" has declared a dividend of 36 o/o payable from to-day.

We take the following items from the River Plate Times (Montevideo) :—

"On the 10th instant the Italian Bank will pay the 5th definite quarterly dividend of 3 dols. per share.

"At the general meeting of shareholders of the Banco Italo-Oriental held on Wednesday, the report and balance sheet were approved, as also a dividend of 1.20 dol. per shares.

"The s. aladero of E. Moure t and Co. sold 4000 ox hides at 2.35 dols heavy of 75 kilos, to be delivered this month.

"207 bags and 2624 arrobes wool entered yesterday. Sales continue good. 3 to 4000 arrobes sold in F. C. C. U. station at 4 to 4.50 dols. arrobe and 4 to 5000 arrobes in Feria at 4 to 4.35 d lls., fleece.

"P. Denis and Co. have bought from the National Company 10,000 oxen to slaughter at Cuneo, at reserved price, commencing Jan. 15.

"The English steamer Dilsberg has landed a quantity of materials for the Central and N. Western Railways.

"The Eolo brought from Buenos Ayres yesterday 2000 dols. for B. Tejada.

"The s.s. Rio Janeiro took to Nery and Luisello and Santa Catalina 1480 dols. in Brazilian money, and to the London Brazilian Bank at Pelotas 9479 dols. The s.s. Uruguay takes to Liebig's Co. at Fray Bentos 50,000 dols. from A. Hoffmann."

ESPECIFICO DE Hayward en Polvo

The cheapest and most effectual Dip in the market.

It costs a fifth of the price of Tobacco Dips.

It is the easiest of application, cold water only required.

It is the only Dip that is so durable in the wool as to keep the sheep clean and free from contagion from dipping to shearing, thus saving a great deal of valuable time and labour to the Estanciero during the winter months.

It is fast becoming the favorite Dip throughout the world, as it never fails in the worst cases of Scab.
